My husband, Curtis, played the trumpet through high school and college. We organized a trio in 1966 and played professionally throughout the Panhandle. We still work together with our trumpet & piano duo. My family is thriving. Curtis and I have been married for 46 years. We never left Amarillo during the 36 years that Curtis worked for Diamond Shamrock. There were a few years of retirement, but it didn't last long. He is now back into the workforce full-time and loving his new career in Real Estate. I am in charge of most everything else, including 2 poodles & a cat, kids & grandkids whenever they show up, a house in town and a cabin in Sunday Canyon.
