Attended three colleges, finally received a BA in Mathematics, never used it. Lived and worked in Amarillo until 1968, then moved to D/FW where I have lived most of the time since (short stints in Detroit, Philadelphia and Amarillo, and doesn't count Army duty in Fort Bliss, TX and Fort Huachuca, AZ).

Drag raced for a few years, then switched to motorcycles. Have been play riding and competing (participating?) in off-road enduro and cross-country motorcycle races since 1968. Along with fellow geezers, now ride dual-sport bikes all over TX and nearby states, on-road and off-road. Still do a lot of family play-riding on motorcycles & ATV's along with occasional endures and cross-country races, usually with my son-in-law. Have owned over 200 cars, trucks and motorhomes, and over 300 motorcycles, currently have thinned the herd down to only 5 and 10, respectively.

Quit working in 2000 after 30 years with the same company, never took a day of sick leave. How lucky, and dumb, can a person be?

Married 44 years to Susan Allen, AHS Class of '59, Two children, Brady (36, lives in Massachusetts) and Paige Kirkman (32, lives in Hurst, TX). Four grandchildren, two in Cape Cod, ages 18 and 9, and two in Hurst, ages 5 and 3, that we see every day or two.

Will be glad to see everyone, and will miss those who don't come, and those who aren't with us anymore.
